Not so Sweet Dreams

Author's Notes:
Just another drabble I had written up earlier.

I tossed and turned but it didn't seem to matter; the nightmares continued to haunt me. I was over it and I had moved on, but there were those times where my mind reminded me of the nightmares sometimes.

I sat up, gasping, and looked around the room. I slowly laid back down with a sigh and reminded myself it was just a dream. I would call Adam if I needed to but this one wasn't as bad as the one before. It got better each time just like they said it would. Next time it would be even better.
